Finals Competition Rules

All matches

Dress - Whites

Trial ends are optional

Players may visit the head in all games

No dead ends - re-spot the jack, (except for Championships)

Championships: (Men's, Ladies'),

4 woods, winner is first to 21

Dead ends are re-played

Singles: (Men's non-winners, Ladies non-winners, Bradbury)

4 woods, winner is first to 21

Fixed Jack: (Men's, Ladies')

4 woods, winner is first to 101

If the jack is moved during play it should be replaced on its spot, or as close to it as possible in front of the bowl and in line with the spot.

If there is a bowl covering the spot when marking, that bowl counts 4, then place the jack back on its spot before marking the other bowls.

Pairs: (Men's, Ladies', Mixed)

4 woods, play 14 ends

If the match is tied, the winners are the pair who have won most ends;
if this is equal an extra end is played.

2-wood Pairs: (Drawn)

2 woods, play 18 ends

If the match is tied, the winners are the pair who have won most ends;
if this is equal an extra end is played.

Aussie Pairs:

4 woods, 2 sets of 7 ends each

If the match is tied, play up to 3 more ends, winners are first to win 2 ends.

No dead ends - re-spot the jack

(1st players play 2 woods, 2nd players play 4 woods then 1st players play 2 woods.)

2-wood Singles: (Veteran's)

2 woods, winner, play 21 ends

If the match is tied, the winner is the player who has won most ends;
if this is equal an extra end is played.

3-wood singles:

Play 2 sets of 9 ends each.

If the match is tied, play up to 3 more ends, winner is first to win 2 ends.

Triples: (Open, Millar)

3 woods, play 12 ends

If the match is tied, the winners are the team who have won most ends;
if this is equal an extra end is played.

Sets:

The player winning the toss has the mat in the first end.

The other player has the mat at the start of the 2nd set.

If the match goes to a tie-break, toss again, the player winning the toss shall have the option to take the mat and jack and deliver the first bowl or give it away in either the first or third end (assuming it goes to a third end) and the loser of the toss shall have the option to take the mat and jack and deliver the first bowl or give it away to their opponents in the second end. The match is decided by the winner of each end and NOT by the total number of shots.
